Within this building the class of '92
 came as common underclass people.
 We now leave as growing individuals with challenging futures. Good luck!

Thanks to the Advisor

The yearbook staff would like to thank Mr. Mueller for all his help in making the 1992 yearbook come together. Mr. Mueller was always organized and right on top of everything; he knew who was doing what and which pages needed to be finished. When we asked for his opinion or advice, he was honest but left the final decisions up to us. And when a deadline came near, Mr. Mueller not only helped us complete pages, he helped us stay sane by encouraging all of our work.

Mr. Mueller always made time in his schedule for the yearbook and kept it a top priority. Without him, we would have been unable to pull it together. Thank you, Mr. Mueller.

In Memory of Walter Miller

To Walter Miller: Your winning smile and manner was always there for the students of NRHS. During the two years that we were able to work with you, you became a part of our everyday life.

You showed us what the meaning of sportsmanship is, and although the players weren't always successful, they would come off the field feeling they had done their best. It wasn't a matter of winning or losing, it was getting good grades and having good attitudes that made your teams better than the rest.

As a guidance counselor, you helped us choose classes, solve our problems, and select colleges that would be best for us. Whether we scheduled an appointment or simply raided your office, you were always able to find time for us.

Each of us said good-bye in our own way, but all of us will miss you just the same.

Thank you, Coach Miller.

The students and faculty of North Reading High School lost a wonderful person with the death of Walter Miller.

Walter Miller, teacher, coach, and guidance counselor was a man who cared about his students and wanted nothing but the best for them.

Mr. Miller received a Bachelor's degree in Education from the University of Omaha and a Master's degree in Education from Salem State College. He taught mathematics in the North Reading School System from 1963 to 1970 and was a guidance counselor from 1970 to 1991. He was the head football coach from 1967 to 1970 and then again from 1985 to 1990.

Mr. Miller was a member of the Massachusetts Teachers Association, the North Reading Education Association, and the Massachusetts High School Football Coaches Association.

Whether it was on the field or in the classroom, Walter Miller wanted his players and students to develop self-confidence, to be open-minded, and to gain a sense of fair play in any endeavor. His teaching, counseling, and coaching gave him much personal satisfaction. He spent most of his life with those who meant the most to him: young people.

North Reading High School will miss the friend it had in Walter Miller; the patient, understanding, and dedicated man we came to know and love!

In Memory of Joseph Clarkin

For 34 years Joseph Clarkin's second home was the classroom. For 32 of those years he taught at North Reading High School.

Joseph Clarkin graduated from Salem State College. He received two Masters Degrees from Salem State and a Masters Degree from Boston University.

Joseph Clarkin was the head of the business department in North Reading High School for twenty years. In 1965 he founded the Work Study Program, in which he strongly believed. He fought very hard to make personal typing a part of the school's offered courses. He felt every student who went through high school should be able to type whether or not he or she went to college.

Mr. Clarkin had a gruff exterior, but beneath the surface lay the heart of a very gentle man. He was interested in the lives of his students in school and out of school.

Mr. Clarkin's past time was spent enjoying sports, particularly basketball. He coached girls' basketball in a school where he formerly taught. For 25 years Mr. Clarkin held season tickets for the Patriots. He was one of their biggest fans.

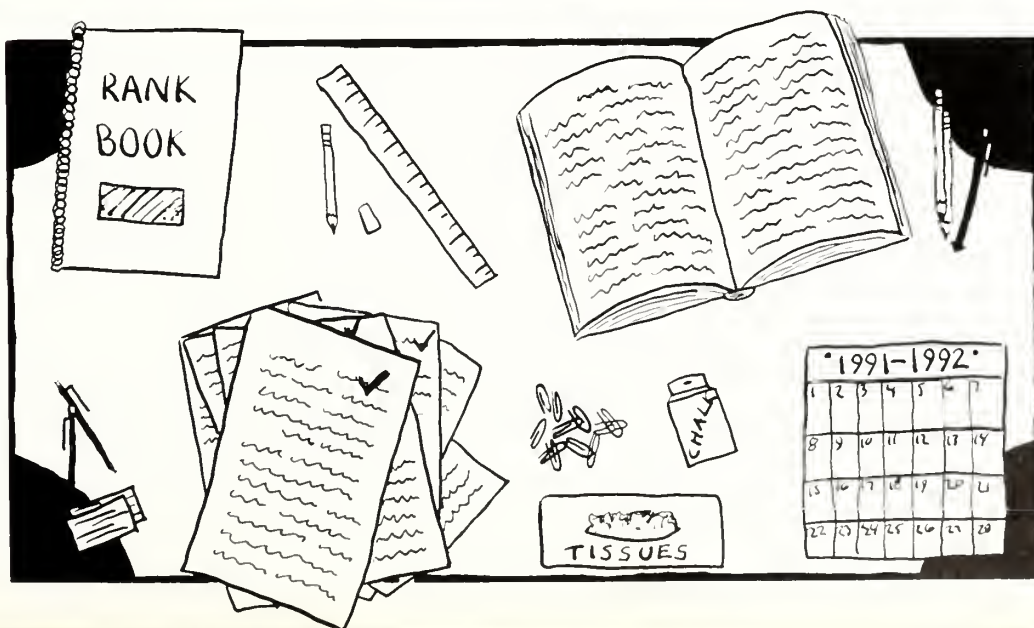

Mr. Clarkin's smiling face and jovial manner will surely be missed by the students and faculty, but certainly not forgotten.

FACULTY + STAFF

Dr. William Butler — Principal

Mr. Robert Pesce — Vice Principal

The Senior Class would like to extend their appreciation to Dr. Butler and Mr. Pesce for all their support and guidance throughout the years. They have kept our school in order by checking up on us when we were missing, controlling us on our rowdy spurts, skipping their lunches to guard the doors, and most of all for allowing us to visit Mr. Ryer during lunch. These two men have made many contributions towards the success and stability of our school.

Thank you.

The time has finally come for us the Class of 92 to say goodbye! After 13 long years of school we get to go into the real world many of us will be going into college and the others will go into a field of work What we had learned in the past will be used in the future and now we bid our classmates a final farewell and a sign of good luck to the future To the class of 1992 Goodbye and Good luck! To; my family who stood by me through the years I'd like to say THANK YOU! Mom Dad Frank Roseanne Estelle

"Little Shop of Horrors"

Traveling down these winding roads
To which we've come to find,
Our schooling years are over
And will soon be left behind.

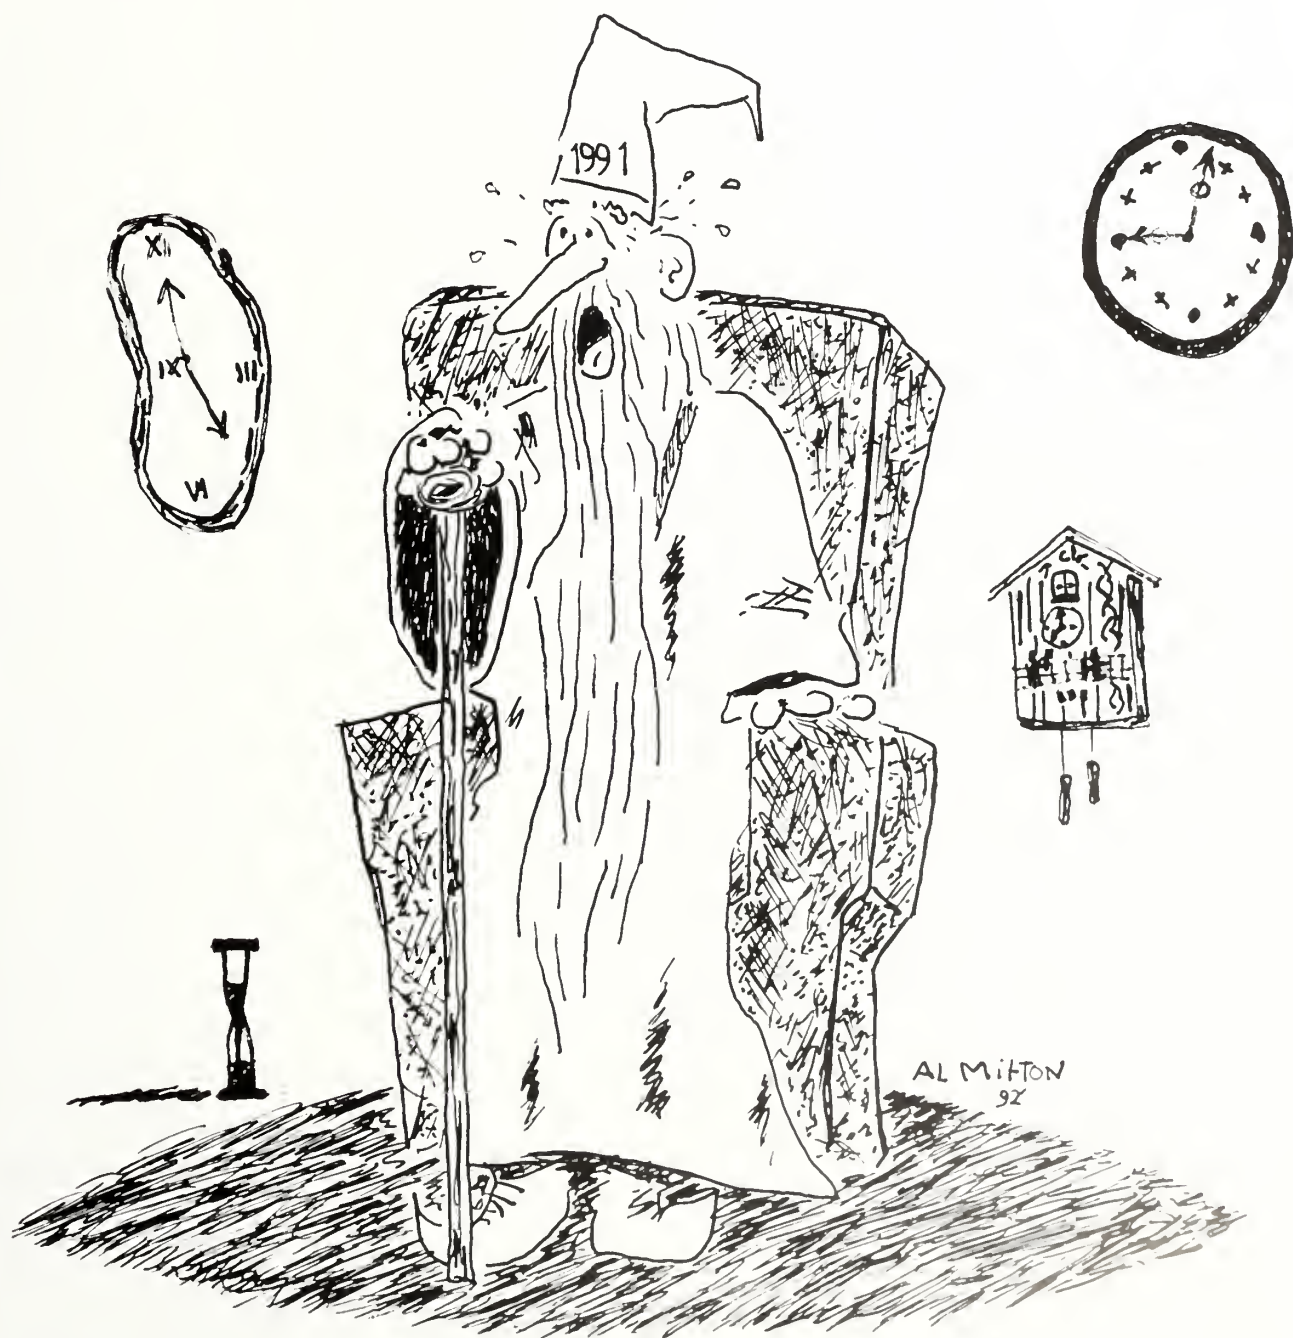

The memories of fun and friends
We shall never choose to ignore,
The future remains in our hands
In which we hope to soar.

We can't predict the future
But we can remember from the past,
Our twelve years are finally over
And they went by so fast.

We'll remember the times that made us laugh
And the ones that made us cry,
But most of all we'll never forget
Our times at North Reading High

Jen Traino

- Times -

Remember . . .

Elementary school seems so long ago, and we've come so far that the problems of our early childhoods look trivial. Remember when the tests were based upon whether you could tie your shoe and riding the big yellow bus was a thrill? You had to raise your hand to dump your lunch tray, and standing against the wall during recess was tragic. Well, missing play-time may have been upsetting, but it was nothing like making the switch to junior high.

We were like a huge jigsaw puzzle. All of the pieces were strewn about, and each one scurried into an open spot to try and find its niche. Now the main concerns were cigarettes, hairspray, and what name brand clothing everyone was wearing. SSR was torture, and going up the down stairs was considered a serious offense. North Reading had the only seventh-to-ninth grade junior high still around, and although we all said it was weird, we all knew it was special, too.

Now we're in high school, and we panic about final exams and college applications. We've finally found our own spaces and who are friends really are. It seems that just as we've begun to find ourselves, we have to prepare to begin all over again.

We will all go our separate ways and, as in the beginning, we will meet new people and learn new things as we try to find a new place in society.

What we spend . . . What we do . . . What we wear . . .

Mr. David S. Lumb

Many of the students of the class of 1992 had the pleasure of knowing Mr. David Lumb. Those who did, knew someone who was always ready to help. To cross paths with him not only meant a better day, but also a day when you would feel special.

Mr. Lumb liked his job, but it was the students he loved. High School Sports, especially hockey, were among his favorite things. Even in his last days he wanted to know how all the teams were doing.

Thank you Mr. Lumb, not only for all your help, but just for being you.

The Class of 1992

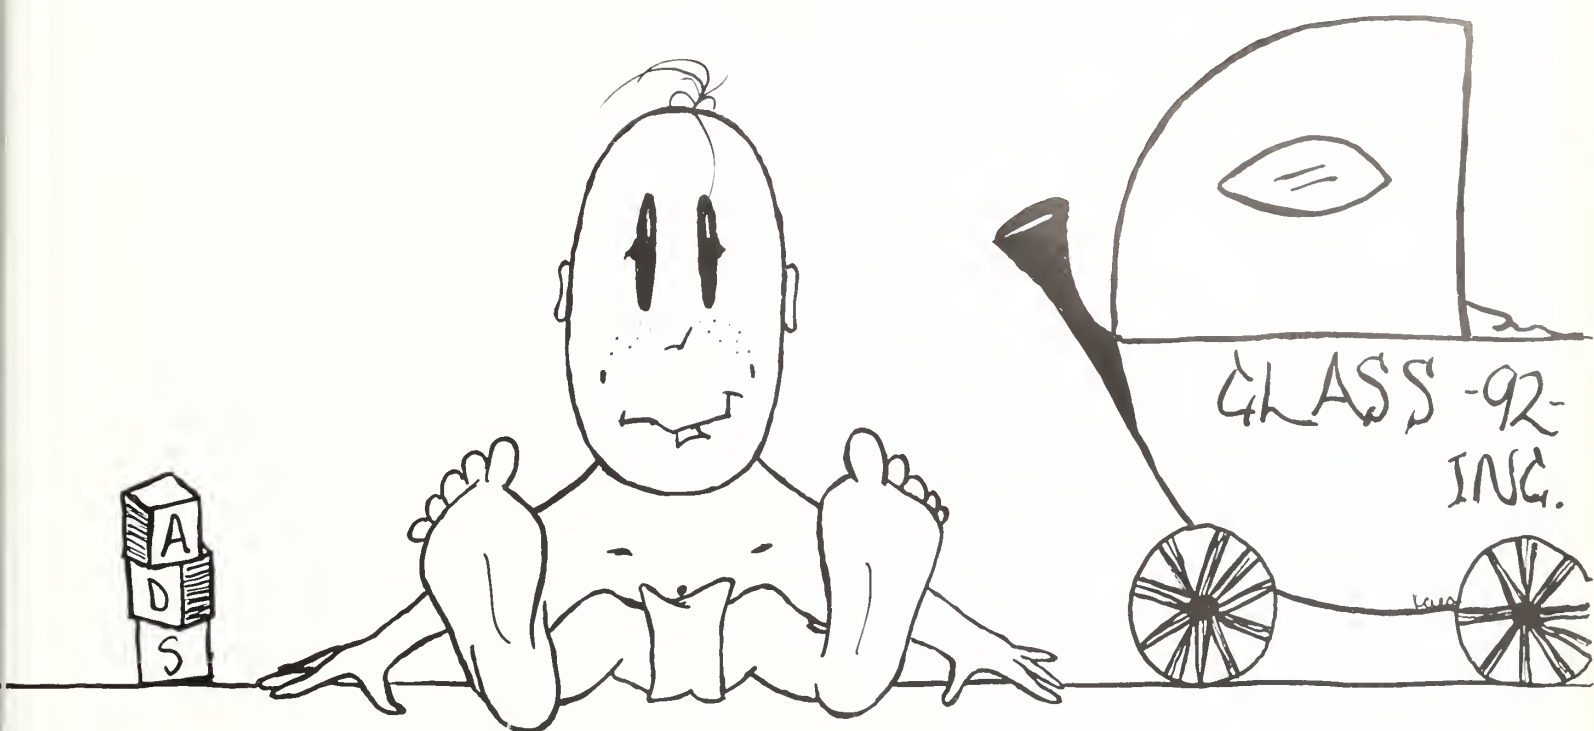

Mr. William Grover

For the past 33 years Mr. William Grover has been an unsung hero at North Reading High School. As an "after hours" custodian, his handi-work was done while very few people were there to appreciate it. If you are fortunate enough to know him, you know how caring and considerate he is.

Enjoy your retirement, Mr. Grover, but you'll be greatly missed.

Dear World

My young daughter starts school today. It's all going to be sort of strange and new to her for a while, and I wish you would sort of treat her gently.

You see, up to now she's been queen of the roost . . . She's been boss of the backyard . . . Her mother has always been near to soothe her wounds and repair her feelings.

But now things are going to be different.

This morning she's going to walk down the front steps, wave her hand and start out on the great adventure that will probably have war and tragedy and sorrow . . . To live her life in this she will have to live by will, require faith and love and courage.

So, World, I wish you would sort of look after her . . . Take her by the hand and teach her things she will have to know.

But do it gently, if you can

Kerry,

As you step out into a new world, please, know how proud of you I am. You've done a great job. May you always be happy.

Love,
Mom

Lisa (The Princess),

It seems like yesterday we put you on the bus for kindergarten.

You have that special warmth and happiness that touches all who know you. We're so proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Ryan & Mark

Heather,

May you find as much joy in your life as you have brought to ours.

Love, Mom, Dad, & Cara

Your childhood is gone but we are so proud of the adult you have become. We love you for who you are, and whatever paths you may choose to embrace. Our love will be with you and we will cherish you always.

Love,
Mom & Dad

(#12) Shawn:

We hope you attain all the GOALS you set for yourself. If you need an assist we're always here for you.

With love and pride,

To our dear little "Patcha":
A beautiful woman
From a small, tiny girl
You have grown up so fast
And, now it's your turn
To enter the big world.

As you go, do not be afraid,
You leave with our love
To carry you through
Along with wishes of happiness,
Luck and health from us to you.

So, take those first steps
Let the new journey begin.
Congratulations, "Patcha"
From all of your kin!
Love, Dad, Mom, Annette, and Trixie

Sharing our love
teaching us life
We are proud as we can be.
Your goal in life is to shoot for the stars.
With determination
you will succeed.
May health, happiness
+ love fill your life
To our beautiful daughter.

Stacy

Tina,

Thanks to all of the yearbook staff for a fine job; Well done all.

Particular thanks and kudos to Kara Chabot for going far beyond the call of duty. Without her work in all areas, this yearbook would never have been completed.

An extra pat on the back to Lisa McDonald who also did yeoman work when she didn't have to.

Best of all things to all the staff and to the entire class of 1992.

The days of school have past and gone and our childhood is almost through.
We are all becoming adults now and its time to start a new.

Memories of good times and fun will never leave my heart
And I'll never forget my dearest friends when we all have to part.

My friends have shared my laughter and have always dried my tears.
I've grown to love them all more and more through the years

As life goes on and we make new friends
My memories will never be erased.
and the friends I've made through the years will never be replaced.

I've learned that life has no meaning without friends who really care and thats why I thank my wonderful pals for always being there.

We all have to grow up sometime and I'm sorry to see my school years go
But I know in my heart and soul
My friends will forever hold a glow . . .
